

Jersey Library Online – Borrowing Books and Magazines

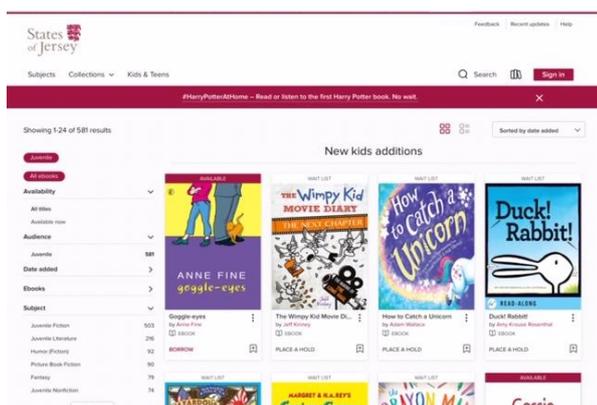

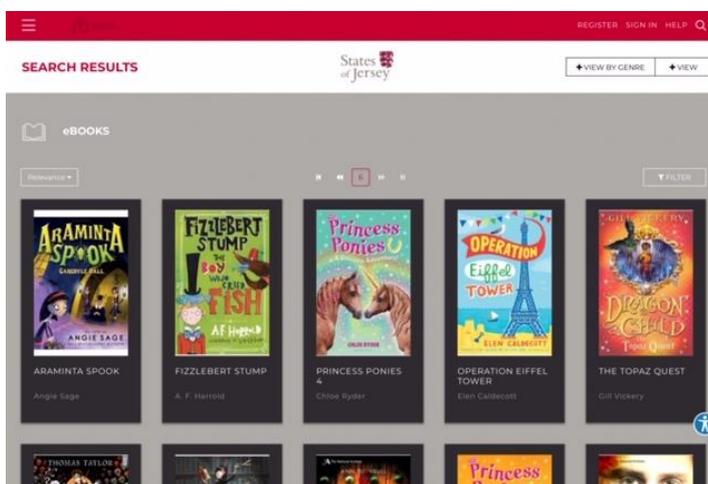

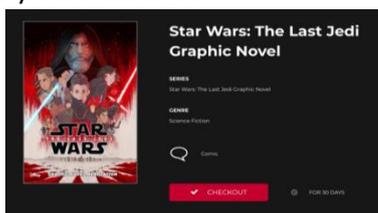

Jersey Library may have closed its doors at the moment but there are still lots of library resources available to you at home. With your library card you can access a wide range of ebooks, audio books, newspapers and magazines; all for free.

If you don't already have a library card visit <https://jerseylibrary.gov.je> to join the library online. This will take you to the screen pictured here. Use the option to Join on the top right of this page, complete your details and a temporary library card number will be emailed to you. If you need any more assistance you can contact the library by email: je.library@gov.je, or by phone: 448700

Once you have either a library card or a temporary card number you can explore all the books and magazines we have available.

Rbdigital has a range of different resources including eBooks, audio books, children's books, magazines, graphic novels and comics. To access these visit jersey.rbdigitalglobal.com and register with your library card number.

Even more ebooks and audio books can be found on OverDrive, visit jerseylibrary.overdrive.com to discover these and many other great books.

If you enjoy reading magazines Pressreader has over 7000 magazines and newspapers from around the world including some in Polish, Portuguese, Russian and Romanian. Find out more at pressreader.com by signing in as Library or Group then selecting Jersey Public Libraries and entering your library card number.

All of these websites offer apps that make borrowing from Jersey Library online even easier.
